Teaching Experience

EDH 7916: Contemporary Research in Higher Education – “The R Class” – University of Florida

- Introductory graduate-level class covering data wrangling, statistical coding, and reproducible research
- Instructional material available to view at capaldi.info/7916/

Guest Lecturer – Maps & Spatial Data

Spring 2026

Co-Instructor

Spring 2025, Spring 2024

Teaching Assistant

Spring 2023

“In addition to knowing the subject matter so well, Matt also exhibited a passion for teaching which carried into the classroom. The lectures were engaging and Matt seemed to have a genuine desire to help all of us in the class succeed.” – Course Evaluation (Spring 2024)

1:1 Stata & Data Wrangling Tutoring – University of Florida

Fall 2024

- Tutored new doctoral student to our research team on basic statistical coding and analysis

Automating Data Retrieval for Enhanced Reproducibility – ASHE Research Workshops November 2024

- Workshop demonstrating R and Stata code to automatically download and label IPEDS data
